ADVERTISING GUIDELINES FOR FAIR HOUSING

Section 804(c) of Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968, as amended, prohibits advertising housing for sale or rent in a manner that indicates a preference for or against potential home buyers because of their race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.

Section 805 of Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968, as amended, prohibits financial institutions from denying residential loans or financial assistance because of the applicant’s race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.

For persons engaged in or associated with advertising the availability of residential financing, the following guidelines are provided to assist in complying with the VA’s equal opportunity program.

1. All advertising of residential financing will contain an Equal Housing Opportunity logo, slogan or statement as a means of advising the homeseeking public that financing is available to all persons regardless of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status or national origin.

   a. Equal Housing Opportunity Logo:

   If other logos are used in the advertisement, then the Equal Housing Opportunity logo should be of a size comparable to other logos.

   b. Equal Housing Opportunity Slogan: EQUAL OPPORTUNITY LENDER

   c. Equal Housing Opportunity Statement: We are pledged to the letter and spirit of the United States policy for the achievement of equal housing opportunity throughout the Nation. We encourage and support an affirmative advertising and marketing program in which there are no barriers to obtaining housing because of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.

2. If human models are used in display advertising campaigns, the models will be clearly definable as reasonably representing all potential homebuyers in the metropolitan area. Models, if used, will indicate to the general public that the residential financing offered is open to all without regard to race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.

3. It should be noted that selective use of these guidelines could be considered an effort to circumvent fair housing advertising, and thereby in noncompliance with Federal regulations. Selective use is defined as using the guidelines or the Equal Housing Opportunity logo or slogan only:

   a. when advertising financing for a particular housing development, and not another development with housing units for which financing is also available; or

   b. in advertising media that reaches a limited or particular section of the community to the exclusion of other geographic sections within the same community.
